What is a Weekend in Tweed?

A weekend full of vintage “adventures”, a nostalgic atmosphere, and an absolutely retro mood! A Weekend in Tweed is a special event during which participants show up in their best tweed appearances and along with friends, family, and other lifestyle lovers, they can enjoy an island escape dedicated to a charming journey through time full of unforgettable moments and activities. Attendees can enjoy relaxed bike rides through the streets of Spetses and picnics in shady nature, all while tweed directs the mood of the charming event.

The jovial energy is unparalleled with the outfits recalling a time-past, and special surprises such as beauty pageants with unique awards keeping guests in excited and cheerful moods, and providing ongoing momentum at the nostalgic event.

The outfits emphasise the past through the incorporation of tweed, and all things vintage, be that long cycling skirts, knitted overcoats, or bowties and hats. The event momentarily blends the past with the present to imbue a sense of journeying through time into the weekend, while also allowing for participants to make distinct and unforgettable new memories as they truly take the time to live in the moment.

A Weekend in Tweed on the Island of Aromas

This autumn, the island of Spetses will be filled with a delightful retro vibe for a weekend full of vintage “adventures”, nostalgic atmosphere, and special tweed appearances.

From the 10th to the 12th of October, the Poseidonion Grand Hotel will welcome its guests for a unique “Weekend in Tweed”.

With the sweet weather as an ally, the all time classic character of the Poseidonion as a backdrop, and the cosmopolitan aura of the island, visitors will enjoy a three-day event dedicated to a charming journey through time, full of activities and moments that will be unforgettable. A relaxed bike ride with beautiful classic bikes - true two-wheeled treasures - a picnic in the flowery nature of Spetses, as well as elegant outfits with a principal element of tweed; this event is expected to monopolise interest.

“A Weekend in Tweed” could not, of course, miss out on the deliciously tasty proposals, signature of the Poseidonion and also includes surprises such as a beauty pageant to highlight the best appearances, an atmospheric party, and unique awards.

Polished bikes, stylish presences, happy moods, and a retro atmosphere will create the most unforgettable memories.

“A Weekend in Tweed” is held with the support of the Hellenic Bicycle Museum.

Hellenic Bicycle Museum

The Hellenic Bicycle Museum exhibits an impressive collection of classic models and offers a unique tour into the world of cycling.

Pre-war and post-war bikes, for city use or racing, all masterfully restored and preserved in perfect condition, invite the visitor to take a magical journey back in time.

Apart from the intriguing collection, also of interest is the specially designed workshop for rare bicycle restoration and maintenance, where one can learn everything about bicycles since the beginning of the 20th century up to present day.

Yiannis Sinanoglou was the mastermind behind the whole project. An avid connoisseur on the subject, he took great care in carrying out the restoration and maintenance of the classic models, breathing life into the antique bikes and creating the first museum exclusively for old bicycles, leaving a legacy to future generations.

"Aged for 12 years in hand selected oak casks and with notes of dried and tropical fruits, spice, cloves, ginger and a subtle hint of sea salt, Cutty Sark 12 year old Blended Scotch Whisky pays tribute to the ship's many anchor points and its long, proud maritime history."
